

Stefan Kreitmayer

<http://www.kreitmayer.com>
stefan@kreitmayer.com

15 Hanmer Road
MILTON KEYNES, MK6 3AY
United Kingdom

+44 7511 59 2357

Curriculum Vitae, Spring 2010

Stefan Kreitmayer develops interactive and reactive computer graphics for live performances and installations. Recent works have focussed on interdisciplinary collaborations with composers, directors, designers, and choreographers. Earlier activities in film music and sound design. Currently working as a research student at the Open University on a project about climate change and collaborative learning with multitouch tables.

Employment / Teaching

Open University, United Kingdom

Research student at the computing department

University of Bremen, Germany

Assistant researcher at compArt center of excellence digital art.

University of the Arts Bremen, Germany

Tutor of Media Informatics (object oriented programming for designers)

Folkwang University, Germany

Tutor of Music Informatics (functional programming for composers)

Education

2008-2010	M.A. Digital Media (ongoing), University of the Arts Bremen, Germany
2003-2008	Diplom Electroacoustic Composition, Folkwang University, Germany
1991-2003	Private music lessons: piano, bass guitar, solfège

Languages

English, German

Computer skills

Programming

Processing, C, C++, Objective C, Java, Python, Awk, Scheme, ActionScript, HTML, MySQL

Operating Systems

OS X, Linux, Windows

Audio Software

Logic Pro, Nuendo, Ardour, SuperCollider, Pure Data, Csound, Chuck, Audacity, Max/MSP

Graphics Software

Photoshop, Blender, Flash, Gimp, Inkscape, ImageMagick

Collaborations with

Carla Bley, Steve Swallow, Frieder Nake, Gordon Kampe, Jan Klare, Uwe Storch, Neil Leonard, Thomas Neuhaus, Dietrich Hahne, Claudius Lazzeroni, Bruno Klimek, Sebastian Jäger, Emex Ensemble, El Parque, Carlos Maria Romero

Concerts and Screenings

ZKM

National Theatre

Philharmonie Essen

Punto y Raya Festival

Linux Audio Conference

MusicAcoustica Festival

Karlsruhe, Germany

San José, Costa Rica

Essen, Germany

Barcelona, Spain

Cologne, Germany

Beijing, China